

Friday, October 10, 2014
10:30 p.m. – 4 p.m. Robert Crown Sailing Center
United States Naval Academy
Annapolis

Number of early registrants will receive a their ticket price for the United States Sailboat Show

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER NOW!

This event will be held at the United States Sailboat Show through Sailing Workshop on Friday, October 10, 2014 in Annapolis.

— AGENDA —

Opening Remarks

Ken Reighler

Senior Shuttle Pilot and Lockheed Martin Executive Aerospace Engineering, United States Naval Academy
Training Squadron, United States Naval Academy Sailing

Panel Discussion: "What's Working"

Jessica Servis

US Sailing REACH Program

Cindy Nickerson

New England Science & Sailing Foundation

Fred Carr

Detroit Yacht Club
University Prep Science & Math High School

Geoff Cuneo

National Sailing Hall of Fame
Learning Math & Science through Sailing

Lunch

"Influence of the America's Cup - Apparent Wind"

Science of the America's Cup - AC72 Wing Sail"
Science of the America's Cup - AC72 Foils"

Resources

Classroom Demonstrations - Mark Murray

Associate Professor, Mechanical Engineering
United States Naval Academy

HydroLab Demonstration with NavyJohn Zselecsky

Branch Head, Hydromechanics Laboratory
United States Naval Academy

□

Create Your Own Test Tank - Paul Miller

Professor, Naval Architecture & Ocean Engineering
United States Naval Academy

To register online, click here.

Click here to take a look at presentations from the 2011 & 2012 workshops.