

The National Sailing Center & Hall of Fame is now streaming on its home page , Facebook page and YouTube channel

a short film clip from the "Passion for the Sea" Series, sponsored by SPERRY TOP-SIDER and narrated by Gary Jobson. The series includes sailing stories and profiles of sailors.

This archive of previously featured clips is for your enjoyment.

A PASSION FOR SAVING THE SEA

Marine conservation is a responsibility every sailor holds dear. This is a tribute to all sailors who share a passion for the sea, and our desire to protect it.

SAILOR PROFILE: PAIGE RAILEY

Laughter, hard work and trying out new things are what this young champion cherishes about her sport.

A MEDAL BETTER THAN BRONZE, SILVER OR GOLD

While at the Olympic Games in Buscon, South Korea, Gary Jobson covered the amazing story of a Finn sailor who was honored for leaving the race course.

THE QUEST FOR SPEED

Rubberneck some of the fastest and wildest sailboats on the planet.

MY FIRST SAILBOAT RACE

Gary Jobson recalls when, at age 6, he boarded a leaky sneak box in Barnegat Bay with 3 simple instructions...

SAILOR PROFILE: FARRAH HALL

US #1 ranked windsurfer talks about the hard work and fun rewards that come with the speedy sport of competitive windsurfing, where your body becomes a part of the boat.

THE MIGHTY MINI CLIPPER SHIP STAD AMSTERDAM

Tall ships are always an amazing sight, but the mighty mini clipper ship Stad Amsterdam under sail is truly magnificent. Take a fast ride on this 256-foot long steel hulled treasure.

BECALMED

It's every sailor's worst frustration. What do you do when the wind won't blow?

QUARTER INCH - The 1982 Hall of Fame Regatta

A quarter-inch made all the difference in this Etchells race in Newport.

MAGIC MOMENTS

Gary Jobson talks about the magic that is sailing, and about some of his magic moments on the water, including the day he got to take the helm of ENDEAVOR.

OLIN STEPHENS' AMERICA'S CUP DESIGN

This short film narrated by Gary Jobson showcases the innovative design contributions of naval architect and sailor Olin Stephens and how he forever changed the America's Cup yacht race.

CLASSIC YACHTS

Enjoy the magnificence of America's most beautiful works of moving art... the Classic Yachts.

SAILOR PROFILE: ERIK STORCK

USSTAG 49er sailor Erik Storck talks about sailing with family, racing and the 49er class.

