

The sail is a complex engine that transforms wind power into propulsion. Sails enable the miracle of sailing. There is little to equal the combination of satisfaction and challenge, joy and competition that sailing provides. This video reviews the 50 year history of North Sails, from 1957-2007, and provides a glimpse at the art and science of sailmaking.

About 15 minutes.