

Celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Newport to Bermuda Race, the 2006 Race had a record 263 boats, over 2,500 sailors, and challenging light conditions. This year's race featured a classic boat division, as we follow the race on-board TICONDEROGA, the classic wooden ketch believed by many to be designer L. Francis Herreshoff's crowning achievement.

About 58 minutes.